

DANIELLE
ALLARD

www.danielleallard.com

"This acoustic endeavor, also from Ottawa has actually been featured on IMN before and we'll be reviewing their album in an upcoming article, but are nevertheless, a definite find; a trophy buck you'll be pleased to have taken down that comes with a high recommendation for anyone who's hunting for something filling, meaningful, and all-together masterful. Be sure to listen to Bass in my Veins and Hurricane, a couple of real gems."
– Independent Music Magazine

"Today Danielle is a musical superhero of sorts, a mild mannered college instructor during the day and a passionate musician and performer by night (you'd have to go to one of her shows to see if she has a cape and a mask or not)."
– Hendrik Pape, Sound Check

About Danielle:

Danielle Allard is an award-winning vocalist from Ottawa, Canada. A graduate of the Canterbury music program with a specialization in vocal performance, Danielle has been singing publically since the age of 9. She began playing guitar and piano at the age of 14 and writing her own music and lyrics from the same age. She became a mentor and teacher at a young age, teaching vocal techniques and rhythm guitar to colleagues. She recently completed her Master's in Communication and teaches at the local college while consulting local artists on social media management in her spare time.

After the release of a full-length studio album and a five province tour with the group Go Long, Danielle is finally ready to go solo.

Her debut album CHAMELEON is currently in production and will be released May 9, 2015.
